

SERIOUS INJURY

A GUIDE FOR THOSE WHO HAVE SUFFERED SERIOUS/CATASTROPHIC INJURIES

Very serious injuries such as brain injury, loss of limb, spinal injuries and severe burn injuries are usually referred to as “catastrophic injuries” by the legal profession. These injuries can often have a huge impact of the life of the injured person and their family.

If you have suffered a catastrophic injury then you may need any one or several of the following:-

- Rehabilitation services
- Interim payments (partially payments in advance of final settlement) to help with bills whilst you are not working
- Adaptations to your home, car and other equipment
- Purchase of specialist equipment
- Care services
- Re-training for new employment

Crucially, you will need the financial assistance to support these needs for your future.

Forster Dean Solicitors has over 20 years experience in dealing with catastrophic injuries and have help thousands of client’s recover the compensation that they deserve and, perhaps more importantly, obtained the rehabilitation and support that they need as quickly as possible. We have teamed up with leading Barristers to offer the very best service possible.

At Forster Dean Solicitors you will be matched up with a senior solicitor with the experience necessary for such a complex claim on the basis that they will stay with you from the beginning of the case right the way through to its conclusion. We find that having the same solicitor throughout is particularly important in these complex cases so that we can build a relationship with you that allows us to best understand your needs and priorities.

Catastrophic injury claims are very complex and it is important that you have a specialist solicitor to deal with your claim. Please telephone Forster Dean Solicitors on 0800 389 1978 for free initial advice.